2015-2016 MASSJCL EDITOR

Merhaba, bonjour à tous, salaam, and salvete, omnes!

I am so honored and excited to be your 2015-2016 MassJCL Publications Editor. For the past four years that I have been in the JCL, I had always hoped I would be a state officer. Now that I am one, I cannot express my joy and gratitude enough!

I just want to say hello from the secluded and rolling Berkshire hills in Williamstown. States might be behind us but we have Nationals coming up in a few months! I really enjoyed meeting some of you fellow MassJCLers and I look forward to meeting more of you at Nationals.

Ex corde,
Najla Nassar

EDITOR'S FAREWELL

Salvete, MassJCLers, This will be my final letter to you as Publications Editor. Thank you for an absolutely wonderfully year. It has been such an honor and pleasure serving as Editor. This job pushed the boundaries of what I thought I was able to do, both artistically, in article ideas and design, and socially, in meeting as many of you as possible in order to get a diversity of contributors. As I move on to MassJCL President, I know I leave things in good hands with Najla, your 2015-2016 Editor. Thank you to everyone who took time to read these publications and participate in the crossword and scavenger hunt activites! I hope you thoroughly enjoyed them and learned something new.

Ab imo pectore,
Linda Qin

"A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A JCLER AT STATE CONVENTION"

State Convention is always a time full of friendship and fun. The memories that we make each weekend are ones we will treasure forever. For those of you on the fence about going next year or who didn't go this year, let me tell you about "A Day in the Life of a JCLer at Convention."

Upon arriving at States, you get your key and a name tag. These are your literal lifelines, so don't lose them (or else you will have to dance in front of everyone)! Next, you go to your room and meet your roommates. You never know if any of your roommates is an Illuminati member, so you have to be careful. After you go to your room, it's time for dinner. This is the fuel of the JCL test takers. Make sure to eat in a timely manner because you'll soon get whisked away to the first GA.

I won't bore you with the details of GA, but basically, short people talked. Academic testing is the next item on your list. Here, it's important to distinguish between a phone and a watch. Apple watches are not permitted, unless in airplane mode. Make sure to go down with Ms. Fillion and watch a plethora of cat clips that are on a constant loop, 24/7.

Saturday is a mash-up of activities, a melting pot of fun, but here are some major highlights. In Certamen, Massachusetts set a record for being the most buzzer happy individuals—go team! The second GA was complete with many students not being able to perceive how long a minute is during roll call and the announcement that Mr. Joey Staruski of Rising Tide was available. After GA, many delegates attended a community service workshop, which was followed by a graphic arts workshop, where Lindsey Dierig taught us how to not plagiarize. The night closed in quickly as delegates rushed to the gazebos to be served the best meal yet—and yes, there was chocolate cake.

Soon following, That's Entertainment began and delegates swooned as Fall Out Girl blasted the crowd away with "Uma Thurman." This gripping performance was followed by the officers impersonating the SCL and the SCL impersonating the officers—what a coincidence! The winner of Coin Wars—yours truly—and the loser of Coin Wars—Linda—gave a beautiful interpretative dance that has been documented forever (and may be destroyed). Then, you voted for your officers. Some of you decided that the dance was the hopping place to be, so you went and danced to Ayo all night long before crashing into bed.

When you finally rolled out of bed, you grabbed your toga and got your spirit on! Throngs of JCLers encircled Sturbridge as they yelled about the Classics before eating pizza. The final GA saw the usual technical difficulties, random dancing, and, this year, no tears. All in all: best 3 days of anyone's life. If you are on the fence about convention, don't think—just go, and have the time of your life.
